Fourth Sunday of Lent

MARCH 30, 2025

Joshua 5:9a,10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21;
 Luke 15:1-3,11-32

[There are alternate Biblical texts that may be used for the first and second readings.]

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is usually called "Laetare Sunday." (It's pronounced "lay-TAH-ray.") It means "Rejoice!" It is the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon or Introit.

Why do we rejoice during Lent? Our Opening Prayer says that we rejoice in God's word. Our first reading speaks of the joy of the Israelites as they finally entered the Promised Land. Our Responsorial Psalm tells us to look to the Lord that we may be radiant with joy. The second reading encourages us to rejoice because we are a new creation. At the end of the Gospel, the Father says that "we must celebrate and rejoice" because the lost is found, the dead has risen.

There are other reasons for joy: In the ancient Church, the Lenten fast (and every day was a fast day) did not begin until Monday after the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Today, then, was a kind of "Mardi Gras" — a day of rejoicing before the Lenten Fast. Still later in the history of the Church, people rejoiced because Lent is half finished; we are half way to Easter.

Our primary reason for rejoicing, however, must always be God's unlimited and unconditional love of us. Even when we were God's enemies because of sin, God loved us and sent his Son to save us. Even when we are weak and when we fail, the Lord still reaches out to us with his love and mercy — just as the Father in the parable.

Do you know of someone who is burdened with sin? Tell him/her of God's love. Do you know of someone who thinks he/she is nothing and that life is worthless? Tell him/her that God loves him/her with an everlasting love. Do you think that you are so rotten that not even God can help you? Read the story of the "Prodigal Son" and learn the love of our heavenly Father. Rejoice! God loves you! He can heal you and make you a person of joy!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

With the arrival of April, we look forward to many parish events. The warm weather makes us eager to be outside. As the grass turns green, and the trees get their leaves we have a sense of renewal all around us. I hope that our Lenten observances have us ready for an inward renewal as well. Our self-denial has influenced our habits. Through our prayer, fasting, and almsgiving we have united ourselves with Christ and our neighbor. I pray this will bear much good fruit in our renewed commitment to keeping our obligation of Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, of seeking Reconciliation frequently, and of working together to build our parish and faith community.

As we celebrate the 1700th birthday of the Nicene Creed let us think about the words we are reciting each week at Mass. Let us renew our conviction of “I believe” and let us continue our journey in the faith that has been handed down to us. We have much to be thankful for at St. Francis Solanus – we also have a responsibility to live our faith in a way that passes it down to the next generation. May Almighty God bless us as we persevere in our Lenten journey.

In Christ,

Fr. Bruce Scott

An Update from Father Arisman:

I am so sorry I haven't written sooner. I thought by weeks ago I would have already returned. I have had another set back. At the base of my sternum, right below the incision, I have a hernia. Before I return it needs to be repaired. Surgery is schedule for 7 a.m. Monday, March 31. Cardiac rehab is going well. I am building my stamina more and more. You have no idea how much I miss you all at St. Francis, all of you in Quincy, and all of those from previous assignments. Your cards and letters and gifts have been immensely appreciated! I am so humbled and feel so loved by you all. It keeps me motivated. Please continue to pray for me and my recovery. Know of my prayers for you all! I hope to see you sooner than later!
