First Sunday of Lent

MARCH 9, 2025

Deuteronomy 26:4-10; Romans 10:8-13;
 Luke 4:1-13

Originally, Lent was the final preparation time for baptism which (except in case of emergency) was ministered only in the Easter Vigil and only to adults. Nowadays, Lent is the time for our baptismal renewal.

By baptism, we became children of God, temples of the Holy Spirit, members of Christ's own living Body (the Church), sharers in the very life of God. By baptism, we entered into a covenant with God. We promised that we would be loyal to the Lord in every aspect of our lives. We promised to love others as Christ loves us, and to be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect.

Very likely, most of us have failed to live up to our baptismal dignity and our baptismal commitment. Lent, then, is the time to renew. We began on Shrove Tuesday with a good Confession. On Ash Wednesday, we remembered that we are nothing – dust, and therefore we must not live for this world.

Today, we reflect that we, like our spiritual ancestors, are nobodies. Nevertheless, God called us to be a holy people. He brought us to the promised land of baptism. So we must return to him the first and best of our lives.

In the Gospel, we see that even Jesus was tempted. If we are loyal to Christ, we shall also be tempted. We are tempted to follow the ways of the world instead of the way of Christ. We need help. We need faith. We need renewal!

God promises that he will never permit us to be tempted beyond our strength to resist. But we must pray for faith and for grace. Let us make use of this wonderful Lenten season to be more fervent in prayer, more generous in works of charity, more eager in celebrating the mysteries of our salvation. Let us daily die to this world and to self, in order that we may rise to live in his glory.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Slow Down You Move Too Fast

You've got to make the season last!

Forty Days – it's not that long!
When it's past we will sing our song.
For now, let's take our time,
Think about it and make it rhyme
Our God has called, and he says,
"You are mine"
Not just now but for all time.

So slow down
This is where you belong
Take some time and pray along God's plan, you want to know
When and Where
How and Why
Prayer is the way to go.
Quiet time, Slow time, down time
Just you and God, some one-on-one Just relax,
God's got this one
Yes, He had it all along
He's just waiting for you
So Slow Down Don't Move So Fast Give God Your Time, Give God Your Praise
And Oh Yes, Fast and Keep Holy these 40 days.

As we think about slowing down,
I ask that we slow down ever so slightly as we receive our Lord in the Eucharist.
This is our most personal time with the Lord, and sometimes it seems that we are rushing through it.

Lent is always a good time to examine all the aspects of our spiritual and physical lives. By slowing down just a little, we give others their time with our Lord. If you receive in the hand, please do not move away from the minister until you have placed the host in your mouth. The minister of holy communion is responsible for ensuring that the Eucharist has been consumed.

Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

We are happy to welcome Fr. Ken Ahanonu back from Nigeria!

The time is drawing near when Krista from our front office will be leaving. Krista has been an enormous help to me and to many of you during Fr. Arisman's absence, and over the past five-plus years. I will certainly miss her and I may be a little disorganized for a while.

A card shower has been recommended for anyone who would like to wish Krista well on her new journey and express their appreciation for all she has done for St. Francis Solanus. Cards can be sent or dropped off at the parish office.
Chris, Kathy, and Linda will be working the regular office hours but there will usually be only one secretary in the office. We ask for your patience as we begin this transition in April.

Fr. Bruce Scott
