Saint Peter and Saint Paul

JUNE 29, 2025

Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8,17-18;
 Matthew 16:13-19

We can scarcely imagine two men more different than Peter and Paul. Peter was uneducated; Paul was a highly educated rabbi. Peter was a Galilean fisherman; Paul was a well-born Roman citizen. Peter was crass and impetuous; Paul was sensitive. Yet both men were called to be pillars of the primitive Church. Paul probably had more native talent than Peter, but Peter was called to be "the rock."

Our first reading tells of the escape of Peter from Herod's prison. Peter would make his way first to Antioch and then to Rome. The second reading tells of Paul's last days in a Roman prison. He has fought the good fight; he has finished the course.

Now he awaits the crown of glory. It had been a long journey and struggle. He had persecuted the Church for which he finally became its greatest champion. He had suffered betrayal, beatings, imprisonments, shipwrecks — all for the sake of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel is the Gospel of the primacy of Peter. He is called to be the "rock," the center of unity in the Church. He is given the power of the keys of the kingdom of heaven, which means authority over the Church. He is given the power of binding and loosing — of imposing and releasing from obligations in the name of the Lord.

Peter was crucified upside down in Nero's arena on Vatican Hill; the mighty St. Peter's Basilica is built over his tomb. Paul, as a Roman citizen, could not be crucified. He was beheaded outside the walls of Rome on the road to Ostia. Let us honor these two apostles, patrons of the Roman Church. Let us pledge that we shall use our distinct and diverse talents always for the glory of God.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SS. PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

We have a unique experience this weekend. Instead of being the Mass of the thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we have the Solemnity of Ss. Peter and Paul! This solemnity celebrates the founders of the Church of Rome. There are two sets of readings for this feast; one for the vigil Mass and one for the day. We will focus on the readings of the day. We hear of the persecution of the Church, the death of James, and the arrest of Peter. In the same passage from Acts we also hear of Peter miraculously being saved from his chains and freed to continue preaching the Gospel.

We have this wonderful gift of Paul's second letter to Timothy. Paul is saying he is ready to die. He is not afraid of death as he has poured himself out completely for the faith. Paul has been rescued and saved bodily. He is not afraid of anything in this world because the Lord will bring him through it.

The Gospel today is about Peter's announcement of Jesus as Messiah. We hear about the founding of the Church on Peter the rock, and that the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. We hear of the keys to the kingdom. The new role that Peter will play as "steward of the kingdom." This is a Davidic kingdom role. This shows us that Jesus is establishing a new and everlasting kingdom. This authority to bind and loose, to open and close, is from this role as steward. The role of steward in David's kingdom was to rule in the place of the king, while he was away, and rule in his mindset not your own. The steward's role is one of succession and it is never ending. This role of steward continues today in Pope Leo XIV. So, on this feast day of Ss. Peter and Paul, we pray for the Church of Rome, but especially for our rock that the Church of Rome stands on, and that is now Pope Leo. Pray for him.

I want to thank the picnic committee. What an amazing job they did! We need school families and parish families to step up every year to make this event successful. It is a major tool of evangelization, fun, and fundraising. This event hugely supports our school. This event brings people from all places in our community to our property to show them hospitality and welcome, which is evangelization. It brings people to our doors and shows them the fun of the faith. We are a joyous people. Thank you to so many that helped this last weekend, in the oppressive heat, to make this event a success, especially the committee members. All these months of planning are not in vain.

Lastly, thank you to Fr. Bruce Scott. As we celebrate him during the Red White and Blue pancake breakfast, come join the event and give Fr. Scott our love and prayers as we send him forth to be a pastor to the people of Holy Family in Decatur. We thank him for all he has done here at St. Francis, especially stepping up to be administrator while I was recovering from my open-heart surgery. May God bless his ministry as pastor. Thank you Fr. Scott.

From Fr. Arisman

Thought for the Week : Pope Leo XII on Sunday Rest:

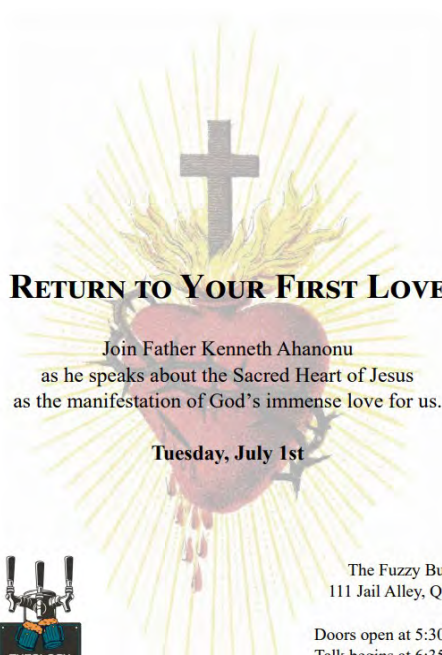

From this follows the obligation of the cessation from work and labor on Sundays and certain holy days. The rest from labor is not to be understood as mere giving way to idleness; much less must it be an occasion for spending money and for vicious indulgence, as many would have it to be; but it should be rest from labor, hallowed by religion. Rest (combined with religious observances) disposes man to forget for a while the business of his everyday life, to turn his thoughts to things heavenly, and to the worship which he so strictly owes to the eternal Godhead. It is this, above all, which is the reason and motive of Sunday rest; a rest sanctioned by God's great law of the Ancient Covenant- "Remember thou keep holy the Sabbath day," (Ex 20:8) and taught to the world by His own mysterious "rest" after the creation of man: "He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done." (Gen 2:2)

Encyclical of Pope Leo XII on Capital and Labour 1891.

Ladies of St. Francis News:

- We hope everyone will join us when meetings resume in September. Until then, we wish you
- all a healthy and blessed summer.
