JULY 6, 2025

Isaiah 66:10-14c; Galatians 6:14-18;
 Luke 10:1-12,17-20

A theme of joy pervades the texts of today's Mass. The joy comes from the proclamation of Good News. What is the "Good News?" In its essence, it is that God loves us, that he will see us through any crisis, and that he promises us everlasting joy.

The first reading is from the very last chapter of Isaiah. Isaiah sees the joy and peace which will come with God's Messiah. All nations will be united; all will worship together; all will be prosperous; there will be peace. God will triumph.

Isaiah expected that this would happen shortly after the return of the exiles from Babylon; it didn't happen that way. But still we must have hope. The Responsorial Psalm echoes the reading: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. Proclaim the marvelous deeds of the Lord; think of the blessings he has given you.

The Gospel is the story of Jesus' sending out seventy-two disciples to be his heralds on his way to Jerusalem. They are to proclaim that the reign of God is at hand. When the disciples return, Jesus rejoices even though he is on his way to Jerusalem to suffer and die. He rejoices because he sees Satan fall from heaven. He rejoices because the power of evil will be broken. He rejoices because eternal joy awaits in heaven.

The second reading tells us that we must never boast except in the cross of Christ. This seems strange. We want joy and happiness, yet we are to glory only in the cross! But it is only by our willingness to empty ourselves in sharing the cross of Christ that we shall conquer evil and find true joy.

Why are we sad? We are we depressed? If we realize that God loves us, that he will always win, and that he will give us eternal life, how can we remain sad? Let us rejoice in God's Good News. Let us live in peace.

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Let all the earth cry out to God with joy!”

This responsorial psalm speaks to my hope as I say good-bye to you. The year has gone very quickly yet we have formed a strong friendship. God has certainly surprised me with the blessings I received at St. Francis Solanus.

I hope you know how much I have loved being with you in the parish and the school. From the day of my arrival, I have been made to feel welcome. Now as I take my leave, I know that you are sending me with your prayers and well wishes and I thank you! Special thanks to 7 Sisters ministry that has someone volunteering to pray for each priest daily – all day. Thank you Fr. Arisman for bringing me to St. Francis and for allowing me to cover during your illness. May God bless you as you continue to pastor this wonderful parish. I also thank Fr. Ken for his willingness to work with me, as we were both new to parish life and shepherding the people of God. To Deacons Wayne and Dennis, I express my gratitude in being able to work with you in your ministry as Deacons. You have both been a great help to me in my first year as a priest and I am thankful for your eagerness to serve the church. To all the staff of the parish and school – you are the best! Thank you for allowing me to be a part of the team and to provide the best for our parishioners and students.

To all the organizations: Austin’s Army, Food Pantry, Ladies of St. Francis, Holy Name Society, Quilters, Knights of Columbus, Funeral Dinner, as well as the many prayer groups, OCIA, PSR, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, secular Carmelites and Franciscans and everyone who comes to this beautiful church to pray, may God continue to bless all of your efforts to live out the message of the Gospel. I hope that those reading this will be inspired to find a group to join on their journey of faith. Last but certainly not least is every one who makes this such a beautiful place of worship: our servers, lectors, extraordinary ministers, choir, along with the liturgy committee, pastoral committee, and finance committee – you are the backbone of this parish. Often unnoticed but your support and diligence makes it all possible.

THANK YOU ALL!

As I move to Holy Family in Decatur, I take the experience and confidence that you have given me. I ask for your continued prayers, and know that I will be praying for you. Please feel welcome to stop by and see the parish, which has had some renovations made over the past few months.

My address will be 2400 S. Franklin Street Rd., Decatur, IL 62521.

As you know my wife’s name was Joy, so let us all cry out to God with joy!

In Christ,

Fr. Scott

This week I began my sixth year as pastor of St. Francis Solanus. What a joy and wild ride it has been these past five years. This is the longest assignment I have had! Thank you to the Lord and all of you for all we have been able to do to grow the kingdom! To many years to come!

I want to encourage everyone to attend the walk and evening prayer to commemorate Fr. Tolton this Wednesday at St. Peter’s.

Lastly, I pray you all had a safe and happy Independence Day! What a blessing to live in this great country! May God bless the United States of America!

Fr. Arisman

Tolton Pilgrimage Procession

Join area Catholics this Wednesday, July 9 for a pilgrimage procession to the grave of the Venerable Servant of God Augustine Tolton on the 128th anniversary of his death. The procession begins at 5:30 p.m. outside St. Peter's Church, 2600 Maine St., and makes its way to the grave at St. Peter Cemetery, 3400 Broadway. Evening Prayer will be prayed at the grave at 6:30 p.m. Some chairs and bottled water will be provided. Those who cannot participate in the procession may meet the pilgrimage at the grave.

Thought for the Week: Prayer can truly change your life. For it turns your attention away from yourself and directs your mind and your heart toward the Lord. If we look only at ourselves, with our own limitations and sins, we quickly give way to sadness and discouragement. But if we keep our eyes fixed on the Lord, then our hearts are filled with hope, our minds are washed in the light of truth, and we come to know the fullness of the Gospel with all its promise and life. Pope John Paul II
