OCTOBER 26, 2025

Sirach 35:12-14,16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18;
 Luke 18:9-14

The world operates on the “good ole boy” system: You do business with your friends. You scratch their back, and they’ll scratch yours. If you know someone in the system, you can get things done. If you have influence, the world is yours.

God doesn’t operate that way. Our first reading tells us that God doesn’t play favorites. He is not unduly partial toward the poor just because they are poor. And he certainly is not partial to the rich just because they are rich.

Actually, though, the Lord does show partiality: He is partial toward those who are humble, sincere, and to persons of complete integrity. But you can’t “fake it” with God! So be careful.

The Pharisee was known to be religious. He had the reputation of being a saint. But he is filled with pride. The tax collector (also called “Publican”) knew he was a sinner, but he is repentant. The Lord hears him and not the religious professional.

The second reading might be an occasion for discouragement. Paul had worked long and hard for the Gospel, yet he is about to be judged guilty with a death penalty. No one took his side in the court case. But he is not discouraged. Departure from this world will mean a crown of eternal glory for him.

Let us pray for honesty and sincerity in our faith. May the Lord help us to realize that we are nothing without him. May he make us persons of complete integrity and wholehearted service.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Last weekend we heard about the persistent widow. This weekend is the continuation of teaching us about prayer and giving. In Sirach this weekend, we hear about how God hears the cry of the poor, the widow, and the orphan. He has such a heart for those neglected and suffering.

Stewardship is a multifaceted way of life. It is the life of a disciple. Prayer is at the core of stewardship. May we be those people who not only pray unceasingly but then be moved to respond to the urgings of our heart with actions. As the Lord hears the cry of the poor, the widow, and the orphan, so should we. Our prayer should move us to serve them, to care for them, to pray for them, to give to their needs, and to love them.

The Gospel shows what God is asking of us in giving. First, notice the gospel says that they came to the temple area to pray. Prayer is at the heart of giving. The Pharisee not only judged everyone in his prayer but then praised all the good things he was doing. He was at the central point for all to see. It was not about prayer. It was not about giving. It was about what he got out of it, which is looking pious and checking the boxes.

God is asking way more of us than just boxes checked. He is asking for your heart. The Lord is asking us to be more like the tax collector in the Gospel. Humble, Real, and Penitent. He is giving himself fully to the Lord to be transformed. So, let us be persistent and humble pray-ers. Let us be a people that respond to the call of prayer to serve the needs of the poor, the widow, and the orphan. Let us give to the needs of the Church so that we may care for the needs of Her people.

The first week of November we are going to change how we do the Mass attendance cards. Starting that weekend and from now on, instead of putting them in the collection you will bring them up to the priest who has the Mass. This is how I wanted it to be in the first place, but I wanted us to start out all the same. The reason that we're doing this is because it gives us an opportunity to make a connection with the kids on a more regular basis. The whole family doesn't have to come up to bring them to me but just have your child bring it up to us after mass. I think it brings an opportunity of real connection. I'm looking forward to that opportunity!

Lastly please keep the Diocese of Jefferson City in your prayers. A new Bishop has been appointed for them. His name is Bishop-elect Ralph O'Donnell. When I was in seminary at Conception Seminary College in northwest Missouri, then Father Ralph O'Donnell was the vocation director for the Archdiocese of Omaha, Nebraska. Eventually he became a formator at that same seminary, but that was after my time there. This week on October 28, Bishop-Elect O'Donnell will be ordained the fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Jefferson City. They are our neighbors to the west. Keep Bishop O'Donnell in your prayers as he prepares for ordination and begins his ministry as Ordinary of their Diocese. He is such a great man and priest and will be a great shepherd.

Thought for the Week: Hunger for Meaning

Are you hungry? What are you hungry for? We're all hungry for something. Knowing what you hunger for is wisdom.

The Bushmen of the Kalahari Desert in Southern Africa talk about "the Two Hungers." There is the Great Hunger and the Little Hunger. The Little Hunger yearns for food while the Great Hunger, the greatest hunger of all, is the hunger for meaning.

It's Not Too Late to Attend the Wild Goose

This is a small group study to help you discover a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit. You have your choice of meeting times, 1:00 p.m. or 6:30 p.m. in the parish center on Tuesdays. For more information call facilitators Bob or Jane Haas, 217-257-0533.

St. Joseph Annual Holy Name Trap Shoot & Card Playing

Sunday, November 2 starting at noon. All are welcome. Two traps. Also prizes, food and drinks available. Takes place at St. Joseph Church, 1435 E 1500th St., Quincy.

Advent Giving Tree: We will be having the Advent Giving Tree once again this year. We ask that if you know of any school family, or a family registered as a parishioner in St. Francis who could use some help at Christmas, please come forward and let the committee know. You may submit a name in a sealed envelope to the parish office, or call Mary Ann Cornwell, 217-430-0528, or Barb Nisbet, 217-257-9473. Parishioners also are encouraged to come forward and ask our faith community for assistance with a self-referral if needed. This program is parishioners helping our own parish family. We would like to include parishioners in nursing homes as well. If you have questions, please contact Mary Ann or Barb.

Holy Name News: The next Holy Name meeting will be Wednesday, November 12 at 6 p.m. in the parish center. Please join us! Thank you to everyone who attended and helped out at the Pancake and Sausage breakfast. Thank you also to everyone who supported the raffle.

Knights of Columbus News: The Big Raffle drawing takes place every Thursday night. This week's jackpot is up to $48,907. Tickets are sold from 6-7:45 p.m. with the drawing at 8:00. Chicken dinners are back on Fridays in McGivney Hall, serving from 5-7 p.m. Drive through or eat in. Cost is $14.

October is Mission Month

World Mission Sunday is October 26.

On that day, every parish globally unites in prayer and generosity for the Holy Father's missions in 1,100-plus territories where the Church is poor, young and persecuted. Your gift helps train seminarians, support vowed religious men and women, and provide for schools and clinics in the world's most vulnerable places. Be part of this global mission of hope—pray and give generously!

Healing Charism Talk: Sunday, November 2 at 6:30 p.m.

Join us in the parish center for a talk on the personal experiences with the charism of healing with Roger Shaner from the diocese of Peoria. All parishes are welcome, and bring a friend! For more information contact Deacon Dennis and Pat Holbrook, 217-257-4384, Karen Weiman, 217-242-5513 or Kelli Lunt, 217-617-1566. Brought to you by Saints Study.

Ladies of St. Francis News:

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, November 18 at 6 p.m. in the parish center. Also, don't forget to pay your dues to the Ladies of St. Francis. You can use the envelope in your packet or pay at the dinner meeting. Dues are $10. Reserve your spot for the next meeting by calling or texting Helen Zimmerman, 217-242-6692.

The next Ladies of St. Francis Card Party will be Thursday, November 6 at 11:00 a.m. in the parish center. On the menu, prepared by Don Altgibers, is dressing-stuffed turkey rolls, sweet potatoes, cranberry relish, apple salad and pumpkin bars for dessert. If you haven't already done so, call Diane Andrew to reserve your spot, 217-430-7153.

St. Francis Fall Harvest Food Drive

October 18 through November 23.

Grocery sacks are located at church entrances. Donations may be brought to church and put into the Food Pantry containers located at all entrances to church. Items for the Food Nook are also a good way to contribute. Thank you!

INSPIRING FAITH, KNOWLEDGE & SERVICE

Quincy CYO is looking for someone to represent St. Francis Solanus School on its Board of Directors. Meetings are held once a month. If you're interested, or for more information, contact Tom McLaughlin at 217-653-1032.

Chess Club: Attention all K-8 students interested in playing chess. Quincy Catholic Chess Club meets at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Peter School cafeteria. There is no cost to join. If you don't know how to play chess yet, we will teach you! We meet on Tuesday evenings. For more information contact Chris Gill at fishgills1208@gmail.com.

Our Ignatius Book Fair is next weekend, November 1-2. Join us after each weekend Mass at school to shop the book fair. This is a wonderful chance to come together as a parish community, enjoy both classic and faith-filled books, and support our school. If you can't make it in person, you can shop online at store.ignatiusbookfairs.com. With books carefully chosen to inspire, there's something for everyone.

Urgent! Help Wanted: Title One Tutor (teacher)

Do you know a licensed teacher who would be interested in applying for a part-time Title One Tutor position? This person will work at St. Francis Solanus School, but is hired through Quincy Public School District #172 using Title One federal grant funds. The days and hours would be scheduled by the tutor in coordination with the principal.
